The Oslo International School (OIS) is a fully-accredited independent international school for students aged 3 to 19. Located in the municipality of Bærum, Norway, OIS aims to provide a challenging international education—in English—to more than 600 students of 50 nationalities.

To improve communication between teachers, students and parents while lowering the workload and simplifying effective teaching, Oslo International schools chose itslearning. Several local and international LMS providers was evaluated, and itslearning came up as the most intuitive LMS that helps them achieving their goals.

“When we decided to migrate to a new LMS we were looking for a platform that was more flexible and had a simpler user interface. With itslearning, we love the modern design as well as the possibility to customise it – and that’s something that not all platforms are able to provide.”

Janecke Aarnæs,
Head of School
