The itslearning & Google for Education relationship is strong and unique.

It's rooted in shared values and a common mission: to improve education through technology. And, itslearning is the only LMS provider that's a Google for Education Premier Partner.

Our aim is to deliver the world's best integration between G Suite and a Learning Management System. We're well on the way. With seamless connections between Google and itslearning in place today, and a bold vision for tomorrow, this partnership is a true game-changer for education.

See how the combination of itslearning plus Google creates unlimited possibilities for teaching and learning.
