

Understanding Plot Tic Tac Toe Choice Board

Students should complete 3 activities using the Tic Tac Toe board below. Students must complete the middle box which will be used as a summative grade. You can either due the 3 assignments going horizontally through the middle, vertically through the middle or diagonally from left to right or right to left.

 Write a song detailing the plot of one of the stories we read in this unit. Please submit the lyrics and a video of you singing your song. You can enlist other family members for a sing along if you would like.	 Cook or bake a food that allows you to depict a plot diagram. You might want to bake a pizza, a cake, or pie for instance. Before you eat it, take a picture or video to submit, so I can see the diagram sections.	 Develop a dance which depicts the exposition of the plot of one of the stories we read in this unit. Your dance should make it very clear what story we are viewing. Please submit a video of your dance.
 Pretend you are giving a speech detailing the plot of any story we have read in this unit. The purpose of your speech is for your audience to understand the stages of the plot. Record your speech and submit.	 Using any of the stories we read in this unit, develop a written analysis of all stages of plot. Submit the written essay.	 Hand sketch a plot diagram with labels to detail the plot as it occurs in any of the stories we have read. Please take a picture and upload your sketch.
 Write your own short story making sure to achieve all plot stages. This can be a picture book or solely text short story. Please submit the story when complete.	 Develop a poster for a new film version of one of the stories we have read in this unit. Be sure on the poster that you indicate the plot, give an engaging tagline, and highlight appropriate actors to play the main characters. Please take a picture and upload.	 Perform a skit detailing of the plot in one of the stories we read in this unit. I should be able to tell from your skit exactly which story this is, and the climax of the plot should be obvious to the viewer. Please upload a video of your performance.
